Treasurer's Report – The treasurer's report from March will be posted on the PTA website, <http://www.royalviewpta.org/>

Principal's Report –

- We started State Testing today. This is for grades 3-5. There was a calendar sent out for all of the grade level testing days. This was also posted on the PTA Facebook page.
- We will kick off our One School, One Book next Friday. There will be a calendar of events coming home for that.
- There is no school on Monday, April 8th for a professional development day for staff.
- We are adopting a new reading program next year. There has been a committee working on this during the current school year and we think we have picked a great program. More details will be shared about this new program after the board approves it.
- April 29th is the 5th grade band concert at North High School Performing Arts Center.
- Mr. Zdolshek and Mrs. Peters will be the new STEAM teachers next year. These teachers will work on STEM and Art activities with students in all grade levels.

Teacher Representative Report/ KG, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, Special Ed., Specials

- 1st grade will attend a Field Trip this month to the Fine Arts in Willoughby. We are scheduled for two different days and the information should have been sent home about this.
